Case No. 1:17-cv-01846-JG

Judge James S. Gwin

SECOND UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO ANSWER PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT OR OTHERWISE PLEAD

Defendant Things Remembered, Inc. moves this Honorable Court for an order granting it a second 30-day extension of time by which to answer Plaintiff's Complaint or otherwise plead – extending the deadline to January 15, 2018. Plaintiff does not oppose this motion for a continuance.

This motion is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. Plaintiff asserts public accommodations claims relating to Defendant's website. The Parties are engaged in settlement discussions, but need additional time to reach a resolution of the matter, including investigating remediation. Given the nascent stage of this litigation, that the Parties are working towards mutual resolution, and the fact that Plaintiff does not oppose this motion, the Parties will suffer no prejudice by this reasonable extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Amy Ryder Wentz
